Dear Sir:

In response to the Notice of Allowability and Fee(s) Due mailed February 6, 2009, Applicants submit the following comments regarding the Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance contained therein.

Reasons for allowance are only warranted in instances in which "the record of the prosecution as a whole does not make clear the Examiner's reasons for allowing a claim or claims." 37 C.F.R. § 1.104(e).

In the present case, Applicants believe the record as a whole makes clear the reasons for allowance and therefore no statement by the Examiner is necessary or warranted. Therefore, the record should reflect that Applicants do not agree with the Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

Applicants' claims should be limited only by the terms utilized therein. In this application, the Examiner loosely paraphrases the claims in the statement of reasons for allowance. For example, the Examiner states that "no prior art could be found to teach the claimed network". However, the claims do not define a network. Moreover, the Examiner stated that "a computer requests a website of a server B by providing a user id". However, no computer is claimed herein that "requests a website by providing a user id". The Office also states that "then the computer receives the address of the requested website from a server A". However, the claims state that it is the address of the selected advertising that is returned, whereupon the accessing computer fetches the advertising from the returned address and integrates it into the Web site. Therefore, the Examiner's statements are inaccurate to the extent that the language of such comments varies from the language that is recited in the respective claims. Thus, Applicants hereby submit these Comments in an effort to ensure that the claims are properly construed based only upon limitations that are expressly present therein and/or to ensure that the claims are not interpreted so as to include any additional claim limitations that are not found in the respective claims.

Should there remain unresolved issues that require action, it is respectfully requested that the Examiner telephone the undersigned so that any such issues may be resolved as expeditiously as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: February 17, 2009
